

MARKING THE ANNIVERSARY OF FALLUJAH MASSACRE

WPJF's banner, displayed during the vigil and left up at the roundabout for several days afterwards

Wrexham Peace & Justice Forum took part in an international month of action in November to remember the US-led and UK-complicit assaults on the city of Fallujah last year.

Read more about our Fallujah film evening and vigil inside, along with information about how Circus2Iraq is to work in Palestine this winter.

Included with this newsletter is a mailing list update form. Our postage costs are now substantial and we want to be sure that we are sending newsletters to people who really want them. Please take the time to return the form, or phone or email to let us know you still want to receive WPJN. Anyone who has made a donation in the past year will automatically be kept on our mailing list. If you haven't made a donation before, please consider helping us out with one now. However, the newsletter is free and a donation is not required.

Read about the "special relationship" between the UK and US on page 6-7 inside.

TROOPS OUT OF IRAQ

Saturday stall in Wrexham with a petition demanding the return of British troops from Iraq

INSIDE THIS ISSUE:

- Dispersal Orders
- Remembering Fallujah
- Circus2Iraq goes to Palestine
- Our "special relationship" with America
- Building Bridges for Peace
- Can Social Credit Stop Wars?
- New anti-ID Card campaign for Wrexham
- Hands Off Venezuela
- Diary Dates and new Film Evenings
- Cartoon, Poems and more