

Wrexham Women Remember the Dead

Wrexham Women for Peace held a vigil and funeral procession (pictured right) in May to remember all those whose lives have been lost in conflict worldwide. Handmade paper flowers (above) with messages of peace were handed out to passers-by and the whole event culminated in a Peace Picnic at Wrexham's Peace Garden.

Full report on page 5

Also in this issue:

- More SOCPA news - p2-3
- Faslane 365 - p4
- Diary Dates - p6
- Army replies to WPJF - p6
- B52 Court Cases - p7
- Paul Peter Piech - p8

- Iran Print Exhibition - p9
- Memoirs of a Peace Activist - p10
- Blair Supports Death Penalty - p11
- Quakers Against Torture - p11
- Police Photo Policy - p12
- Obituary: Gwyndaf Jones - p13
- Cartoons - p2; p12

Should Wrexham Peace & Justice News keep its name of four years or should we change it to something shorter and snappier?
Send your thoughts and suggestions to us at the address on the back page.